The two maps exhibit the changes and development of the village of Stokeford over the period of 1930 to 2010 that is located in the east Bank of the River Stoke.

The village of Stokeford had a huge development over the period of time. It has transformed from a small village to a developed residential area.

Many construction and development was executed after 1930. The development of housing, new roads, and residential properties came into existence in the farmland which was there in 1930. Due to this evolution and the population growth of the village the primary school building was expanded.

In the Stokeford village, one thing that hasn't changed in the years was the Post office. But, if you see the two shops near the post office located in the north-west of the school didn't exist in 2010. Those shops were replaced by new houses. In 1930, at the south-east of the school there was a garden located where there were large houses situated. But, in 2010 it was converted into a retirement house. These were the notable developments that happened in the village of Stokeford over the years.
